FOREWORD

The S.S.M.F.L. tribunal has resigned over a sequence of events concerning the venue of each Tuesday night's "hearings."

The tribunal originally complained that they had been left out in the cold at Gosnells. This followed an unfortunate occurrence when charges were forced to be heard in a change-room because another meeting was sitting in the Gosnells social rooms.

The inclement weather that particular night cooled the most volatile tempers but all concerned with the hearings got cold feet and asked the league to provide a more suitable venue.

The league viewed the request sympathetically and transferred the tribunal's headquarters to Maddington Oval. Conditions at Maddington were suitable to all — except the tribunal members, who found the extra five kilometres travelling a chilling prospect.

They considered the road back was a long one and asked the League to consider re-siting the tribunal at the Armadale-Kelmscott Shire Offices.

Delegates discussed the new request, which was complicated by a fee that was to be imposed by the Shire. When delegates from the two clubs furthest removed from both venues — Mandurah and Kwinana — agreed they were happy with the present situation, the request was rejected.

The tribunal then issued the League with the ultimatum — move or they would resign.

The League accepted the challenge and at a special meeting this week they accepted the tribunal's resignation.

However, this doesn't mean open season for headhunters.

The League formed an emergency tribunal at Tuesday night's meeting that will operate for the remainder of the season.

The tribunal will be presided over by Mr. Jack Chapman, a former member of the South Suburban League and two members nominated from neutral clubs.

TODAY'S GAMES:

Kenwick will be inspired by Maddington's loss last week and should fully test the league leaders at MILLS PARK. This game could easily be a preview of the second semi-final but it's hard to see Kenwick reversing the first round defeat inflicted on them.

Kelmscott could claim outright second place if they defeat Kalamunda at JOHN DUNNE OVAL. Kelmscott showed last week they will give no sympathy to sides on the bottom of the table and this ruthless attitude should serve them well today.

Canning should continue their march towards the finals by defeating Thornlie at WYONG OVAL. Morale will be high in the Tiger's camp following last week's great win and their approach to the game is likely to be far more desperate than Thornlie's.

Gosnells badly need a win against Armadale at GOSNELLS OVAL to steady themselves after last week's loss. Armadale have shown great fight and spirit in recent weeks and will niggly the homeside but Gosnells should win.

Kwinana meet Mandurah at MEDINA OVAL and while neither side can make the four, both will be keen to improve their lot. Mandurah's form, to say the least, has been patchy, whereas Kwinana have shown marked improvement and are logical favourites in this encounter.

THE BULLDOGS

Despite inaccuracy in front of goals Kelmscott completely outclassed a dishevelled Mandurah side to run out easy winners.

Andy McIntosh made a welcome return to the side and added drive around the packs. It was obvious that Andy has picked up added pace over the last few weeks. Chris Parsons also returned last week and showed his class across the half-forward line.

Paul Hansen continued his good form of recent weeks to notch 5 goals. The tally of goals should have been far greater as a winning ruck and dominant centre line in Della, Vasoli and Rose provided the forwards with many opportunities.

In the Reserves Kelmscott had difficulty in getting their game together and were lucky to run out with a narrow lead.

Best Players for the reserves were Claude Clissa, Steve Ronaldson and Mick Johnston and Tony Bewsher.

THE SEASIDERS

Not only was the weather disappointing last week the result of our game against Kelmscott was also rather miserable for players and spectators alike. The game was played in persistent rain which did not make for good football. However poor team work and the lack of depth in the side were reasons for our rather crushing defeat. Final score 20-33 to 9-5. We were lucky that Kelmscott were so inaccurate in kicking for goals. Norbutt Fandry playing at fullback had by far the most number of kicks on the day. Best players were Geoff Rees playing on the ball. Les Barrett in the centre, Haydn Brimson on a half back flank and Rusty Renfrey playing as a rover. It was just as well for the morale of the Club that the 'B' Grade side manages to keep putting in good games. With only minutes to go Mandurah was 1 point in front but Kelmscott managed to steer a beauty through the centre just in time and we went down by 5 points. Best Players were Robbie Rundell at centre, Bill Doy and Kevin Luff on the wings. A good team effort by all players.

SOCIAL NOTES: All members, players and friends are invited to attend a send off for Colin and Dianne Glasson on Friday 16th July at the Clubrooms. Starts 8.00 P.M.

TALK OF BULL

Well it finally happened. The League side was narrowly defeated in a game played in shocking weather conditions. Both sides battled hard all day and after a very exciting game, especially in the last quarter, Canning finally won by some 2 goals. It was a good team effort by all our boys with the best being John Duthie, Paul Mountain, Col Walker and Barry Stockden (who was the first to congratulate the umpire after the game.)

The Seconds side again started slowly but gradually improved as the game progressed and eventually won by seven goals. These slow starts must be eradicated from our play as they can't be afforded against strong opposing sides in the finals. Best for the seconds were Tinisnell, Brett Anderson, Duds Reynolds and Gus Reynolds. Incidentally, Gus has been transferred in the Police Force to Karratha and takes his duties up shortly — all the best Gus!!

Now I would like to draw two important matters to the attention of all members and supporters. Firstly the Bulls Ball of the Year being held Friday 16th July at South Perth Civic Centre has everything — great entertainment, plenty to eat and drink and a great night is assured. Response from some members to date has been poor so those concerned are urged to get motivated, obtain your tickets from Bevin or Garry and be there. Secondly, the big Club Raffle with 1st Prize being $1,000 Cash. There are still plenty of books to be sold so don't be satisfied with selling one book if you can sell two!!

Don't forget, these two functions are the clubs main fund raising ventures for the season so ALL MEMBERS are asked and expected to support them accordingly.

In closing the successful Juniors Cabaret held last Saturday Evening was highlighted by the fantastic Sounds produced by the red headed Rooster on the records. Well done — Rooster!

TIGER TALES

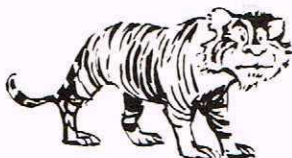

It's been a long time, about eleven years in fact, since Canning supporters were treated to such a magnificent display of courage as shown by our league side last Sunday. The previously unbeaten Maddington, considered invincible in most quarters, were unable to withstand the relentless pressure applied by the Tigers throughout the game and indeed looked a well beaten side in the quarter.

Our tenacious back line, superbly led by Peter Kimberley, continuously turned back the forward thrusts of Maddington despite the fact that full-back Brian Mangini played most of the game with a badly coked thigh. Rovers Cizeika and Wilcox both turned in brilliant games with a desperation that sparked the side early. Centreman John Vlahov was again a convincing winner at centre while Paul Polsen committed his body, along with several of the oppositions, in a manner which served notice that the Tigers were a side capable of lifting the scalp off Maddington. The rest of the team each turned in an effort to be proud of — and we are!

It should be remembered though, that we are still out of the four, hopefully not for long, but there is no room left this season for complacency. Points must be gained at each outing. The critics who gave us no chance of beating the top dogs probably give Thornlie no chance of beating us. But we did, didn't we, and so too can Thornlie — if we let them.

We are now premiership material, let's convey that message in true Tiger style to the Thornlie Lions.

The President and committee of the Canning Football Club extend their invitation to Thornlie Football Club players and supporters to join us for social drinks in the pavilion directly after the game.

MIGHTY ROYALS

In what turned out to be a one sided affair the Mighty Blue and Blacks gave Gosnells a true lesson in team and wet weather football. At no stage did Kenwick release their grip on the Hawks neck as they won in almost every position. This win was a tribute to the coaching of Neil Dedman as he has instilled character and confidence into the players, members and officials alike. The game was played in wet, heavy conditions, but Kenwick's use of the ball was typical of a fine days performance. Their kicking, marking and general ball handling was a treat to watch and their backing up never faulted throughout the day. Although it was a team effort there was some remarkable performances. Jim Gilbert and Dave Backhouse displayed a miraculous ball handling ability under such awkward weather conditions and their assuredness gave the rest of the team confidence in their approach to the ball. Our rucks in Terry Gilbert and John Risely worked hard all day, while strong support came from ruck-rover Neil Venvenue and half-forwards Graham Nicholas and Leon Ryan. Another gutsy display in the centre by Gary Worthington was also a feature of the game.

SECONDS:

With injuries hitting our league ranks the seconds played with a depleted, inexperienced side, but to their credit they fought out a tough game against a very lucky Gosnells side. After controlling the game upto half-time the Royals lost their grip on the game during the third quarter. The defence played it tightly but other players let their opponent run lose and consequently this created an extra man in our defence to contend with. We had many opportunities in the last quarter when the scores remained level for some time, but lack of concentration upon many players allowed Gosnells to break out of defence and kick the winning score — one point. This type of weather brings out the dedicated players who show no fear and who never stop trying. Two players who gave this performance were Ken Staines and Arthur Mills. Players who also worked hard were Geoff Holbrook, Wayne Hill and Wayne Robins.

We have beaten every side in the competition — don't stop because of a little bit of Bull — Canning didn't.

O.D.

THE HAWKS

Last Sunday's games resulted in our League side being soundly beaten and victory once again for our Reserves Team.

The League side lost to a bigger and more determined team on a wet and slippery surface which didn't contribute to our teams normal style of play. Don't let this loss get you down fellas as we know the team was light on with several players out due to injuries.

Best players in the league were Ken Harris, Arthur Jones and Andy Myers.

Congratulations to the Reserves side for their hard fought victory. Best players in this game were Merv Jennings who put in a great team effort also Murray James and Len Marston.

THE KNIGHTS NOTES

Victories were achieved by both sides in hard fought games under shocking conditions last week.

After holding a comfortable margin at half time the seconds slackened off and allowed a much improved Armadale side back into the game. Finishing the game with only seventeen players made their job all the more difficult and they held on to win by two goals. Best players were T. Manion, T. Riseberry and S. Phillips. I wish George Mills a speedy recovery from the injury received in his first appearance with the Club for two seasons.

The league side started the game very quickly but once again lapsed in concentration and allowed Armadale back into the game. By hard work and persistency they gradually asserted their authority and went on to win by six goals. No one player showed the way home better than Frank Legena. He was competently supported by John Sofield, Murray and Terry Lloyd and Ron Caporn.

Congratulations to all players in avoiding reports this week, as we can't afford to lose any more players.

Today we meet Mandurah and with an improved effort of talking and backing should be able to record another double. It won't be easy and will only be achieved by hard work and determination from all players. I invite all players, members and supporters of Mandurah to enjoy a few drinks after the game.

DEMONS DIGEST

'NOT FOR NIX - IN '76!'

Today we finally get away from Gwynne Park, and travel to Gosnells F.C., the 'Hawks'. A double win here today fellas would be a great tonic for everyone in the club.

Last week, against Kwinana, the League side though trying hard all day, made the mistake of trying to play dry weather football, and allowed themselves to be sucked into packs in front of goal, causing them to trip over each other in their efforts to get a clear run at goal. Best players in this game were Maxie Van Heiden, Kevin Trott, Matt O'Mara and the back pocket specialist, Peter Wilkes. Roger Hall won his way into this side from his recent Reserves performances, and played well enough to hold his place, in my book. If anyone wants to know who that bloke was who was going around giving a nudge-nudge, and a wink-wink, it was 'Leevo', sad no more!

The Reserves improved further still on their previous week's performance, and were extremely unlucky not to win. They were in the game with a chance right to the end. All players played well, but none better than Reg Turner, Blaney Brown, Joe Lutey and Lindsay Galloway. Great game fellas, keep on improving and you can win most of your remaining games.

FOOTBALL GAZETTE 12

IN THE LIONS LAIR

Last week's double was welcomed to say the least. It gave our new President Bruce Comley his first taste of victory. After 100 minutes of hard slogging footy the league side found solace in victory by a narrow margin, whereas in the Reserve, the "cubs" coasted to a substantial win in a 100 minutes of fun footy.

Best Players: League: Ray Dalton (exhibition OF WET WEATHER FOOTBALL WORTH WATCHING), Alan Osborne (a real goer - paramount of consistency), Bob Whyte (sure avenue of goals), Stuart Elliott (again proved his selection in the first 18).

RESERVES: Vince Daly (gave his immediate opponent two kicks for the game — must surely be considered for a league berth shortly), Steve Phillips (great display of ruckmanship — unbeaten all day), Steve Vickers (power plus ball getter), Mick Bateman (grabbed some early goals and continued to win all day) Shultz Deters (found great touch a CHB — kicked precisely).

This weeks game against the 'Bull Blurbers' of Canning promises to be another rough and tumble affair.

"Victory cannot be bought — it must be earned".

LURKING LEO

The Under 18's took a slight setback last week against Kelmscott, when they lost by the odd goal. They'll be back in the winners circle this week, no sweat, eh fellas? Best players in the game were Ivan Vudrag (2.I.C.'s), David Laque, and Andy Bicknell. Graham Heal was unlucky enough to fracture his ankle two weeks ago, let's hope your ankle lives up to your surname Graham! On the subject of this team, we must thank Joe and Pat Bavich for putting on a great players tea for them, and for the fine talk given by Tom Grljusch. Thanks for giving us your time Tom.

The cabaret held last week turned out to be somewhat wanting in support, but proved an enjoyable evening for those who took the trouble to come along.
